Farmington's Community Council

by Mayor
Brett
Anderson

A healthy marketplace requires thorough and timely information. To that end, I would like to invite you to participate in an informal "Community Council." The council will meet quarterly. The council will be composed of one volunteer from each of the 16 voting precincts in the City. We will select one volunteer from each precinct. The designee will serve for one calendar year, except for this first year. We'll ask the first designees to serve for the balance of 2022 through the end of 2023, then we'll proceed with one-year terms thereafter. I would like to have new designees each year to hear a variety of voices and ideas.

P·R·A·T Parks Recreation Arts Trails

A PRAT Advisory Board has been formed to create better communication and coordination between parks, recreation, the arts, and trails. This eight-member board is comprised of the following individuals:

- Brad Hartley
- Caroline Larson
- Jon Lowe
- Kenzie Barlow
- Rebecca Mann
- Shawn Beus
- Stefanie Gallagher
- Tracy McCoy

PRAT will meet the third Thursday of each month.

Writing for the United States Supreme Court in 1969, Justice White explained the rationale behind free speech: "It is the purpose of the First Amendment to preserve an uninhibited marketplace of ideas in which truth will ultimately prevail.... It is the right of the public to receive suitable access to social, political, esthetic, moral, and other ideas and experiences...." (Red Lion Broad. Co. v. F.C.C., 395 U.S. 367, 390 (1969).) It is in the marketplace of ideas that we vet and test the opinions, theories, proposals, and options that affect our daily lives.

At the community council meetings, I will provide an update about what is going on in the city, current events, pending proposals, and any new or pressing issues. I will also listen. I want to know what you are seeing in your neighborhoods, the so-called "word on the street," and the issues weighing on your minds. I want to hear your ideas, solutions, and concerns. Then, armed with that information, I can better present your voice to the city council. Together, we will create a robust marketplace of ideas in Farmington.

If you are interested in serving on the community council, please email me at banderson@farmington.utah.gov. Please provide your full name and address, and why you want to participate on the community council. We'll accept applications until the end of the month, then select one applicant per each voting district. I'm excited to hear from you. Together, we can make a difference in our city.

The Historic Preservation Commission

Farmington's Historic Preservation Commission currently has two openings on its nine-member board.

If you are interested in serving on the commission, please apply by submitting a letter of interest, with qualifications, to Commission Chairman David Barney at dbarney@farmington.utah.gov. Questions can be directed to Chairman Barney by email or at 801-706-7512.

To learn more about the Historic Preservation Commission, go to their webpage on the city website: farmington.utah.gov/i-want-to/learn-history-of-farmington. The commission meets at 7:00 pm on the fourth Monday of each month, presently in-person or via Zoom. The public is welcome to attend. We meet in the city council chambers, or you can find a Zoom link on the webpage.

The city council recently approved a new fireworks restriction area in the city. A map can be viewed on fire department's city website page. To keep Farmington safe, it is vital that everyone adhere to this summer's fireworks restrictions. More complete information is on the city website, or if you have specific questions, Farmington Fire Department is available to answer them at 801-451-2842.

Due to dry, hazardous fire conditions, strict observation of the following local fireworks restrictions is :

- It is unlawful to discharge any fireworks or pyrotechnic devices east of red line (see map on the city website).
- In all areas of Farmington, it is unlawful to discharge fireworks or pyrotechnic devices within 20 feet of combustible weeds, grasses, trees, shrubs, fences or structures and city parks, unless specifically designated for use of consumer fireworks.
- Approved fireworks may be discharged from July 2–5th and July 22–25th from 11:00 am–11:00 pm, except on July 4 and 24 when they may be discharged until midnight.

ILLEGAL FIREWORKS WARNINGS WILL NOT BE ISSUED. CITATIONS WILL BE.

FPD's Safe Exchange Zone

Farmington City has a safe exchange zone, a well-lit area that is under 24-hour recorded video surveillance and within a few feet of the Farmington Police Department's front doors (286 South 200 East).

The safe exchange zone was created to offer city residents and visitors an area that is safe to exchange kids between parents or conduct personal online transactions.
