CITY COUNCIL AGENDA

BUSINESS

AGENDA TITLE: Consideration of an amendment to the Development Agreement for the Gatrell Gardens PUD Subdivision to include elements related to a Pioneering Agreement

PRESENTED BY: Lyle Gibson

DEPARTMENT: Community Development

MEETING DATE: July 16, 2024

CITY COUNCIL STAFF REPORT

To: Mayor and City Council
From: Lyle Gibson – Assistant Community Development Director
Date: 7/10/2024
Subject: Consideration of an amendment to the Development Agreement for the Gatrell Gardens PUD Subdivision to include elements related to a Pioneering Agreement.

RECOMMENDED MOTION

Move that the City Council approve the proposed changes to the Development Agreement for the Gatrell Gardens PUD Subdivision.

Findings:

1. The proposed changes do not modify allowed use or configuration of the project and create a fair arrangement for cost sharing following allowed process in Section 12-6-090 of the Farmington City Ordinances.

BACKGROUND

The City Council approved the Development Agreement for the Gatrell Gardens PUD Subdivision in December of 2023.

The development proposal has remained consistent, except that 2 of the lots on the property owned by the Fadel Family are now proposed to be developed at a future date. For now they will remain as parcels which can become buildable lots with a future plat amendment.

Because of this timing, a Pioneering Agreement is proposed enabling the Pioneering Developer to be compensated for a portion of the improvements with benefit the Fadel property. Rather than have a separate Pioneering Agreement, it was determined by staff and the parties involved that it may be cleaner to have these terms within the Development Agreement.

The included agreement shows the changes from the form originally approved by the city council.

Respectfully submitted,

Lyle Gibson
Assistant Community Development Director

Review and concur,

City Manager

DEVELOPMENT AND PIONEERING AGREEMENT
FOR THE GATRELL PUD SUBDIVISION

THIS DEVELOPMENT AND PIONEERING AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the ____ day of _____, 2024, by and between FARMINGTON CITY, a Utah municipal corporation, hereinafter referred to as the “City,” the BARBARA FADEL LIVING TRUST, DATED DECEMBER 30, 2021, and Blake Bastian hereinafter referred to as “Owner,” and ELITE CRAFT HOMES, LLC, hereinafter referred to as the “Developer.”

RECITALS:

A. _____ Owner owns approximately 2.7 acres of land located within the City, which property is more particularly described in Exhibit “A” attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof (the “Property”).

B. Developer desires to develop a project on the Property to be known as the Gatrell Gardens PUD Subdivision (the “Project”). Developer has submitted an application to the City seeking approval of the PUD overlay zone in accordance with the City’s Laws.

C. The Property is presently zoned under the City’s zoning ordinance as Original Townsite Residential (OTR). The Property is subject to all City ordinances and regulations including the provisions of the City’s General Plan, the City’s zoning ordinances, the City’s engineering development standards and specifications and any permits issued by the City pursuant to the foregoing ordinances and regulations (collectively, the “City’s Laws”).

~~_____D.~~ D. Part of the Project will require the development of a private road and storm tech underground water detention for storm water serving the Lots within the Project (the “Improvements”).

~~_____E.~~ Developer agrees to complete the construction of and to initially incur the full expense of constructing the Improvements, subject to potentially being reimbursed for a portion of the expense by the current owner, or subsequent owner, of Parcel A and Parcel B identified on the Plat (the “Benefitted Property”), as more fully identified on Exhibit “B”, and as more fully set forth herein.

~~_____F.~~ Pursuant to applicable provisions of the Farmington City Code; namely, Farmington City Code Section 12-6-090 et seq., Developer may, in connection with the Project and development of the Property and the construction of the Improvements, request to be reimbursed by the owner of the Benefitted Property (the “Adjoining Owner”) when the Adjoining Owner develops the Benefitted Property within the next fifteen (15) years;

G. The Benefitted Property is declared by the City to be a property that abuts or is adjacent to the Improvements that will be installed by Developer, and which said Improvements directly benefit the Benefitted Property.

H. Persons and entities hereafter developing the Property or any portions of the Project thereon shall accomplish such development in accordance with the City's Laws, and the provisions set forth in this Agreement. This Agreement contains certain requirements and conditions for design and/or development of the Property and the Project in addition to or in lieu of those contained in the City's Laws. This Agreement is wholly contingent upon the approval of that zoning application.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and Developer hereby agree as follows:

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The above Recitals are hereby incorporated into this Agreement.

2. Property Affected by this Agreement. The legal description of the Property contained within the Project boundaries to which the Agreement applies is attached as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by reference. Owner expressly agrees to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and acknowledges that this Agreement shall run with the land until its termination.

3. Compliance with Current City Ordinances. Unless specifically addressed in this Agreement, Owner and Developer agree that any development of the Property shall be in compliance with city ordinances in existence on the date of execution of this Agreement. If the City adopts different ordinances in the future, Owner or Developer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to submit a development application under such future ordinances, in which event the development application will be governed by such future ordinances.

4. Compliance with Plans. Development shall be completed in substantial compliance with Project shown in Exhibit "BC" including but not limited to details regarding:

a) Density. The maximum number of lots in the Project is 10 lots.

b) Common Space. The Project contains 0% common space. The preservation of the 2 historic homes counts towards the open space.

c) Building Height. Buildings within the Project may be 1 or 2 stories not to exceed 27 feet per the OTR zone.

d) Layout, Circulation, Connectivity. Lot layout and street pattern shall be as indicated in Exhibit “B”-“C””.

5. Alternative Development Standards. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 10-9a-532(2)(a)(iii), this Development Agreement contains terms that conflict with, or is different from, a standard set forth in the existing land use regulations that govern the Property. This Agreement, which has undergone the same procedures for enacting a land use regulation, overrides those conflicting standards as it relates to this Project, as follows:

a) Lot size and setback: The Property shall be developed in substantial compliance with Exhibit “BC” wherein:

i) No lot shall be smaller than 5,775 sq. ft. nor be less than 70 ft. in width.

~~ii)~~— Lots 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7:

~~ii)~~ii) Garages must be set back a minimum of 20 feet from the front lot line while other portions of the home may be set back 15 feet from the front lot line or corner side yard in the case of Lot 3.

~~iv)~~iii) Lots 1-7:

(1) Rear yard setback shall be a minimum of 10 ft.

(2) Side yard setback shall be a minimum of 5 ft.

(3) Existing north ~~sideyard~~side yard setback of 3.4 ft. for the existing house identified in Exhibit “BC” on Lot 1 may remain. Additions to this house may keep the established north ~~sideyard~~side yard setback.

(4) Corner side yard of existing house of 8.7 ft. for the existing house identified in Exhibit “BC” on lot 2 may remain. Additions to this house may keep the established corner sideyard setback.

(5) Corner side yard for Lot 6 shall be 10 ft. as shown in Exhibit “BC”

~~v)~~iv) ~~Lot 9~~Parcel B shall be allowed to gain access via an easement in the location identified on Exhibit “C” (the “Access Easement Area”) and is not required to have frontage along a street.

v) Initially, 25 North Street as shown in Exhibit “C” will stop at the Access Easement Area and be landscaped. Once the Adjoining Owner seeks development of the Benefitted Property and elects to use 25

North Street for ingress and egress of the Benefitted Property, Adjoining Owner shall be responsible, at its sole cost, to extend 25 North Street across the Access Easement Area to the Benefitted Property property line in compliance with Farmington City requirements. At such time, Developer shall grant Adjoining Owner a reasonable and appropriate construction easement over the Access Easement Area to construct the extension of 25 North Street as stated above.

b) Architectural Standards. Developer will follow OTR design guidelines within the Gatrell Gardens subdivisionProject with the exception of lots 4, 5, 6, & 7. Lots 4, 5, 6, & 7 are exempt from following FMC 11-17-050 of Chapter 17 Original Townsite Residential Zone (OTR) of Farmington Code as it relates to garages. The ~~developer~~Developer will have the leeway to build the homes with 3 car garages without restrictions.

6. Developer Obligations. Developer agrees to the following provisions as a condition for being granted the zoning approval sought:

a) Historic Preservation. The 2 historic homes at 79 N 100 W Farmington and 37 N 100 W Farmington will be preserved. They will not be torn down, and if any modifications are done by the developer to those two home sites, such modifications must maintain their eligibility to remain on the National Historic Registry.

b) Trees. A minimum of 2 trees per lot shall be planted or maintained for interior lots. Corner lots shall plant or maintain a minimum of 3 trees each.

c) Technical Review. The Developer will meet all requirements of the city's DRC (Development Review Committee).

d) Notification of Restriction. Owner acknowledges that the obligation undertaken in this section is a restriction of applicant's rights under clearly established law – i.e., the City cannot normally require the planting of trees or preservation of homes as indicated. However, ~~owner~~Owner agrees that it is willing to accept this restriction in exchange for the benefits received from the City through this Agreement.

7. City Obligations. City agrees to maintain the public improvements dedicated to the City following satisfactory completion thereof and acceptance of the same by the City, and to provide standard municipal services to the Project. The City shall provide all public services to the Project, with the exception of secondary water, and to maintain the public improvements, including roads, intended to be public upon dedication to the City and acceptance in writing by the City; provided, however, that the City shall not be required to maintain any privately-owned areas or improvements that are required to be maintained by a private party or a homeowner's association in the Project.

8. Payment of Fees. The Developer shall pay to the City all required fees in a timely manner. Fees shall be paid in those amounts which are applicable at the time of payment of all such fees, pursuant to and consistent with standard City procedures and requirements, adopted by City.

9. Cost Allocation and Collection from the Benefitted Property.

a) The parties agree that the Benefitted Property is the only Benefitted Property, and that cost allocation and collection shall be limited to only the Adjoining Owner.

b) After proper analysis consistent with Farmington City Code Section 12-6-090(C), the City thus allocates costs of the Improvements to the Adjoining Owner, as the sole Benefitted Property owner, in the amount set forth in the amount of $12,000.00 for each Parcel.

c) The City shall require the Adjoining Owner, if and when it seeks City approval to develop, subdivide or build, to pay the City the appropriate allocated cost of $12,000.00 per Parcel prior to, and as a condition of granting any development, subdivision, conditional use, or site plan approval, and prior to the City issuing any building permit with respect to the Benefitted Property. The parties acknowledge, understand and agree that the City does not guarantee collection from the Benefitted Property and is not required to bring a judicial action to enforce the Agreement against any Benefitted Property or person. In the event that the City does not collect, the City shall assign such right to Developer, permitting Developer to collect on and enforce this Agreement.

10. Reimbursement Payments.

a) Upon collection of the allocated costs from the Adjoining Owner as set forth herein, City shall promptly pay the collected amount as a Reimbursement Payment to Developer. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the City shall have no obligation to make any Reimbursement Payment to Developer until the allocated costs are actually received by the City. The parties acknowledge, understand and agree that:

i) The City is not directly responsible or liable for any Reimbursement Payment to Developer, other than to account for and pay to Developer sums received; and

ii) The City is not responsible in the event this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable.

b) No reimbursement from the Benefitted Property shall be due to Developer pursuant to this Agreement until:

i) The Improvements have been fully installed, inspected, and approved by the City;

ii) Developer has submitted documentation evidencing actual costs of the Improvements; and

iii) Such reimbursement is required by the terms of this Agreement and the Farmington City Code.

9.11. Indemnification and Insurance. Developer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the City and its officers, employees, representatives, agents and assigns harmless from any and all liability, loss, damage, costs or expenses, including attorneys fees and court costs, arising from or as a result of the death of any person or any accident, injury, loss or damage whatsoever caused to any person or to property of any person which shall occur within the Property or any portion of the Project or occur in connection with any off-site work done for or in connection with the Project or any phase thereof which shall be caused by any acts or omissions of the Developer or its assigns or of any of their agents, contractors, servants, or employees at any time. Developer shall furnish, or cause to be furnished, to the City a satisfactory certificate of insurance from a reputable insurance company evidencing general public liability coverage for the Property and the Project in a single limit of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) and naming the City as an additional insured.

10.12. Right of Access. Representatives of the City shall have the reasonable right of access to the Project and any portions thereof during the period of construction to inspect or observe the Project and any work thereon.

11.13. Assignment. The Developer shall not assign this Agreement or any rights or interests herein without prior written approval by the City, which shall not be unreasonably withheld and which is intended to assure the financial capability of the assignee. Any future assignee shall consent in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement as a condition precedent to the assignment. The Developer is affirmatively permitted to assign this Agreement to a wholly owned subsidiary under the same parent company.

12.14. Homeowner's or Commercial Building Owner's Association. The Developer warrants and provides assurances that all landscaping not located on a Lot, private drives, and amenities, if any, located within the Project shall be maintained by a private association of homeowners, building owners, or a combination of the two. The association shall either be created for this PropertyProject, or it shall be absorbed by another Association. All costs of landscaping, private drive and amenity maintenance, replacement, demolition, cleaning, snow removal, or demolition, shall be borne exclusively by the association. The City shall have no maintenance responsibility in relation to the property owned by the association and shall only plow and maintain public roads that are designated as public on the plat. This section survives termination under Subsection ~~20.15~~22 of this Agreement, unless specifically terminated in writing.

13.15. Onsite Improvements. At the time of final plat recordation for the Project, the Developer shall be responsible for the installation and dedication to the City of onsite water, sewer and storm water drainage improvements sufficient for the development of the Project in accordance with City Code.

14.16. Legal Rights. The Developer is represented by counsel and has had an opportunity to receive advice from counsel on this matter. The Developer agrees that any obligation entered into in this Development Agreement that may be construed as a restriction of the Developer's rights under clearly established state law, then its inclusion in this written agreement constitutes adequate disclosure under section 10-9a-532(2)(c)(i) of the Utah Code. The Developer agrees that it will not attempt to void any obligation identified in this Development Agreement under section 10-9a-532(2)(c)(ii), and agrees to waive any objection to a condition of this Development Agreement pursuant to that subsection of Utah law.

15.17. Notices. Any notices, requests and demands required or desired to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be served personally upon the party for whom intended, or if mailed, by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to such party at its address shown below:

available at law and in equity, including injunctive relief and specific performance, but excluding the award or recovery of any damages. 18.20. Vested Rights. The Parties intend that this Agreement be construed to grant the Owner and Developer all vested rights to develop the Project in fulfillment of the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the laws and ordinances that apply to the Property as of the effective date of this Agreement. The Parties intend that the rights granted to Developer under this Agreement are contractual and in addition to those rights that exist under statute, common law and at equity. If the City adopts different ordinances in the future, Developer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to elect to submit a development application under such future ordinances, in which event the development application will be governed by such future ordinances. By electing to submit a development application under a new future ordinance, however, Owner and Developer shall not be deemed to have waived its right to submit or process other development applications under the City Code that applies as of the effective date of this Agreement.

Such termination may be effected by the City giving written notice of intent to terminate to the Developer. Whereupon, the Developer shall have sixty (60) days during which the Developer shall be given the opportunity to correct any alleged deficiencies and to take appropriate steps to complete the Project. If Developer fails to satisfy the concerns of the City with regard to such matters, the City shall be released from any further obligations under this Agreement and the same shall be terminated.~~

~~21.22. Upon the completion of all contemplated buildings and improvements identified in this Agreement, including all applicable warranty periods for publicly dedicated infrastructure, and completion of all provisions of Sections 3, 0, and 6.d) of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall terminate upon thirty days' written notice to either Party. 23.24. Entire Agreement. This Agreement together with the Exhibits attached thereto and the documents referenced herein, and all regulatory approvals given by the City for the Property and/or the Project, contain the entire agreement of the parties and supersede any prior promises, representations, warranties or understandings between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof which are not contained in this Agreement and the regulatory approvals for the Project, including any related conditions.

26.27. Referendum or Challenge. Both Parties understand that any legislative action by the City Council is subject to referral or challenge by individuals or groups of citizens, including zone changes and the approval of associated development agreements. The Developer agrees that the City shall not be found to be in breach of this Agreement if such a referendum or challenge is successful. In such case, this Agreement is void at inception.

35.36. Governing Law & Venue. This Agreement and the performance hereunder shall be governed by the laws of the State of Utah. Any action taken to enforce the provisions of this Agreement shall have exclusive venue in the Second District Court of the State of Utah, Farmington Division.

CITY COUNCIL AGENDA

BUSINESS

AGENDA TITLE: Code Text Change Proposal Related to ADU's - Multiple Sections of the Zoning Ordinance.

PRESENTED BY: David Petersen

DEPARTMENT: Community Development

MEETING DATE: July 16, 2024

CITY COUNCIL STAFF REPORT

To: Mayor and City Council
From: David Petersen – Community Development Director
Date: 07/16/2024
Subject: Code Text Change Proposal Related to ADUs— Multiple Sections of the Zoning Ordinance (ZT-8-24)

RECOMMENDATION

Move the City Council approve the enclosed enabling ordinance amending or enacting Sections 11-2-020, 11-28-200, 11-10-040, 11-11-060, 11-11-070, 11-13-050, 11-13-060, 11-17-050, and 11-32-060 of the Zoning Ordinance.

Findings:

1. The State of Utah and much of the country are experiencing an unprecedented housing shortage. Much is being done to provide affordable “for rent” units but little is being done to create affordable owner-occupied dwellings. The amendment enables opportunities to increase affordable “for sale” housing supply, and will provide low to moderate income households the possibility of realizing equity as part of their housing expenses.
2. The proposed changes support and implement objectives of the City's Affordable Housing Plan--an element of the General Plan.
3. Ownership will not impact the look and feel of Farmington's neighborhoods as renter occupied accessory dwelling units (ADUs) are already a permitted use in the City's agriculture and residential zones, and one cannot differentiate a “renter” from an “owner”; moreover, owner occupancy often enhances property values.
4. Utility and public service providers, the City Engineer, and City's Building Official have reviewed the amendments and found them consistent with standards and day-to-day operations of their respective entities.
5. Many of the changes clarify and/or memorialize long-held practices and interpretations by the City.

BACKGROUND

On January 4, 2024, the Planning Commission discussed the possibility of code text changes to allow ownership of an ADU (Accessory Dwelling Unit) separate from the ownership of the related single-family dwelling. In February the City Council had a similar discussion. On May, 9, 2024, the Commission established a sub-committee to review and draft such amendments, and this working group included City staff and two members of the City Council as well. The subcommittee met on May 20th and June 10th, and individual members (and others) also met numerous times one-on-one with staff during this time period to discuss specific changes. Then, on June 20, 2024, the entire Planning Commission reviewed all proposed changes by the subcommittee (and new/additional concepts by staff, but not vetted by the subcommittee) --this meeting also included a public hearing. The Commission then provided specific direction in preparation for its review of a final draft on July 11, 2024.

The enclosed enabling ordinance contains recommended changes reviewed by the Planning Commission, the sub-committee, the City Attorney, city staff, and others. The enabling ordinance also includes minor "tweaks" to other parts of the Zoning Ordinance to better implement standards proposed by the sub-committee and Planning Commission.

Such instrument shall be in recordable form and shall be recorded with the office of the county recorder as a condition of issuance of any building permit or certificate of occupancy by the city. Ownership may include transfers to successors in interest to the original owner where the original owner retains ultimate control of the DADU such as to a wholly owned corporation or living trust where the owner is both grantor and trustee and the like. All such instruments must be approved by the city attorney as to form and content prior to recordation. Standards for any such DADU created under this Section are as follows:

subdivision. In the event separate utilities for the DADU are not installed, or approved by any or all respective service providers, the owner of the single-family dwelling shall not offer the DADU for sale as an SSF and the city shall not approve the subdivision of the property.

6. Parking and Access Easements: If an SSF lot frontage on public or private right-of-way is not wide enough to accommodate parking or pedestrian access, or if an SSF lot has no frontage, the owner of the single-family dwelling lot shall provide parking and pedestrian access easements, acceptable to the city, to the owner of the SSF prior to or concurrent with the recordation of the subdivision.
7. Certificate of Occupancy: A property owner, or the City, shall not record a subdivision to enable an SSF until the City has issued a certificate of occupancy for the SSF.

Initial separation shall mean for purposes of this part the date upon which the initial owner of the single-family dwelling divests or sells a fee simple interest in the DADU creating the SSF.
9. Number of Permissible Dwelling Units:
 - a. An SSF shall contain no more than one dwelling unit, and shall not have a DADU or an IADU.
 - b. A Single-Family Dwelling which is essential to the creation of an SSF shall not have an DADU, but may have an IADU. Findings:

- 1. The following findings are restated within the enabling ordinance:
 - a. The proposed changes clarify which responsibilities remain with city staff within the Chapter that originally stated within its purpose that the processes within were administrative processes which would be approved by the zoning administrator.
 - b. Enabling the Planning Commission to review subdivision plat amendments will allow for additional oversight in a public format for the separation of ownership of detached accessory dwellings or other simple conventional lots splits which comply with ordinance requirements.
 - c. The City Council will remain the authority over amendment proposals where changes to easements or rights of way which are generally owned by the City are considered.

BACKGROUND

In consideration of a changes to the ordinance which would allow for potential ownership of detached accessory dwelling units, city staff has been reviewing process and is proposing changes to the Subdivision Plat Amendment approval process to more appropriate facilitate this pending consideration and other common requests.

The ordinance designates authority for dealing with Subdivision Plat Amendments which to date has not been identified within Farmington City Code. The city has simply followed process identified by the state and without having designated otherwise, has defaulted the authority to the City Council in all cases where a Subdivision Plat is amended. The proposed ordinance designates authority to city staff, the Planning Commission, and City Council differently depending on what is being proposed.

This proposed text has been updated for clarification per feedback from the City Council after the public hearing on 7/2/2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Lyle Gibson
Assistant Community Development Director

COMMUNITIES THAT CARE PRESENTATION

Tonya Schilling, prevention specialist, with Davis Behavioral Health, presented this agenda item. She is the Communities That Care (CTC) coordinator, including the Central 3 CTC representing Farmington, Kaysville, and Fruit Heights. Their vision and mission is to prevent substance abuse using local data; develop a plan to help the youth; prioritize mental health; help youth make informed decisions regarding substance abuse through community engagement, family support, and educational endeavors. CTC provides opportunities to engage with the community and assist families with their needs. The CTC builds a foundation, structure, and action plan.

Jayne Poulson, was recently nominated as the chair of the coalition. She is uniquely qualified for the position, as she worked as a prevention specialist while working on her Master's degree. Years ago she worked on bringing the CTC into schools and analyzing data. She has had children graduate from both Park City High School and Farmington High School. She learned a valuable lesson when she organized a substance abuse panel while on the Park City PTA, only for four parents to show up. Two months later, two high school students overdosed on pink, and it was standing room only for an emergency parent meeting. It taught her that there is willingness to respond to a crisis, but unwillingness to work on prevention.

The Utah Student Health and Risk Prevention (SHARP) survey is designed to assess adolescent substance use, anti-social behavior, and the risk and protective factors that predict these adolescent behaviors. It is a treasure trove of information providing comprehensive information about drinking, tobacco use, frequency of sitting down to have dinner with family, school safety, etc. The answers are anonymous and layered, or asked five different ways, so that respondents don't lie.

In Farmington the survey has shown risk factors such as a low commitment to school, depressive symptoms, bullying, and perceived parental attitudes toward anti-social behavior. Priority protective factors include prosocial involvement in the peer/individual domain, and rewards for prosocial involvement and behavior in the community domain. The Davis School District has one of the highest opt-out rates, meaning parents are asking that their children not take the SHARP survey.

Shilling said the CTC needs help from the City Council and other community and business leaders to support youth by serving on the CTC board and coalition groups to work on initiatives collaboratively. They want champions to spread the word of who CTC is and what they do. Davis County SHARP data is open to everyone, and information can also be obtained on an individual school level.

City Councilmember Melissa Layton said compared to others in Davis County, Farmington is high in drinking alcohol in the home. Farmington is fortunate to have a police officer attend CTC meetings. Farmington could use its connections to Lagoon to provide messaging and as part of a parents empowered campaign. The City could also provide parks and meeting spaces to the CTC. She mentioned the City Council's efforts to recognize youth each month during their Council meetings.

Poulson said it does no good to speak out on substance abuse if local needs are not being directly addressed. She has lived in Farmington for 11 years, and used to practice treatment as a doctor. She can see through a parent lens and also see the behavior of a parent modeled by a child. The data shows there is no accountability or consequences. Parents need to be educated and see education as a priority, not call in to excuse piles of absences for their children. The data shows social hosting, or wanting to be liked instead of respected. There is a lot of anxiety and depression. Kids want to get good grades, but they are not getting life skills.

JACK IN THE BOX PRESENTATION

Mike Williamson, FSC Development LLC; Spencer Greer; and Chris McCandless addressed the Council. Williamson said they are proposing a Jack in the Box fast food restaurant at the intersection of Burke Lane and Innovator. The drive thru would be to the back of the building to keep it off the street. He is asking the Council for straight forward feedback before they go through the process of asking for approval.

Greer spoke on market conditions, saying the restaurant looks at traffic counts when deciding where to locate, not income. Being in the right place with enough traffic and vibrancy is what counts. In this location, traffic will be funneled down on the east side of the freeway. A lot of people will be going to and from work, and there are not a lot of convenience establishments in that area. There are other amenities close by that are a regional pull, and it is easy to get on and off the freeway. Jack in the Box is a national name that people will recognize.

Farmington is one of the most narrow cities in the State, so the demographics never show well. In this case, it is anticipated that traffic will catch here in a funnel, especially with the new planned interchange. Some restaurant sales in Farmington have been underwhelming, but growth is anticipated in the next five years. With Wasatch, Evergreen, and the future Weber State University (WSU) nearby, Jack in the Box will likely do well. They are trying to create an urban fast food restaurant with a walkable store front for to-go orders.

Community Development Director Dave Petersen said the building needs to meet Farmington's form and build-to line. Their Development Agreement has a paragraph that allows commercial uses in the area, but it may not allow a drive thru. The paragraph reads: “The property at the corner of Burke and Commerce shall not be restricted to office or supporting retail use, but shall be commercial use as defined in the zoning ordinance of the City.” Greer said fast food is therefore permitted, but a drive thru is not.

Councilmember Scott Isaacson said when he served on the Centerville Planning Commission years ago, they approved a Taco Bell and then a Del Taco a month later right next door. At first he didn’t understand, but then learned it works that way. When Lonestar Saloon and Steak House along the frontage road became Centerville’s first sit-down restaurant, he saw that it didn’t last long because there were no other restaurants around it. In this case, he hopes that there won’t be more fast food restaurants close to this Jack in the Box. It is not the best use of that property. He doesn’t feel there will be enough WSU students to support it. He had hoped to only have nice, sit-down restaurants in that part of town. It is not a good location or fit for any kind of fast food.

Greer said McDonald’s is 1.5 blocks away. Councilmember Alex Leeman said it is not line of site. Isaacson said more fast food closer to McDonald’s is fine. Williamson said the 0.83-acre site is not a size conducive to a sit-down restaurant.

Councilmember Roger Child said he is not opposed to a Jack in the Box or a drive thru there. The free-standing 0.83-acre pad is too small to do anything. He is not opposed to having a mix of restaurants. Co-existence is a general draw, something “Restaurant Row” in Layton is notorious for. He hates to see a commercial pad sit vacant forever.

Greer said as a Jack in the Box franchisee, they know it is green. There is some hope, especially with the future of the STACK development and the County’s Western Sports Park (WSP). This site has a few problems such as medians on each lane, forcing a right-in and right-out that is not easy to navigate, and the franchisee knows this. They plan to orient the drive thru access on Burke Lane and Commerce. There is not a lot of food uses coming in right now. This is not a location for people pulling off the freeway to get food. It is for people living and working in the area. It fits in with community members’ regular use.

He said ground-floor retail on apartment buildings is the worst kind of development to ever happen because Utahans don’t live in a walkable community; nobody wants to. Ground-floor retail is vacant in Salt Lake City right now. It is becoming more walkable, but it has been a struggle.

Leeman said the Sego project is great, as is the Wasatch property. The Evergreen project kitty corner to this proposed use will be nice and high-end. With that in mind, he was hoping for something more classy than a Jack in the Box. It seems fast food is a step down from the surrounding projects. He would love to see a project support the surrounding residential rather than the drive-by consumer. Isaacson agreed. Williamson said he appreciated the feedback.

PUBLIC HEARINGS:

Consideration for additional text and changes to Title 12, Subdivision Regulations, designating the land use authority over Subdivision Plat Amendments

Assistant Community Development Director/City Planner Lyle Gibson presented this agenda item. In consideration of changes to the ordinance that would allow for potential ownership of Detached Accessory Dwelling Units (DADU), City Staff has been reviewing the process and is proposing changes to the Subdivision Plat Amendment approval process to more appropriately facilitate this pending consideration and other common requests.

The ordinance designates authority for dealing with Subdivision Plat Amendments, which to date have not been identified within Farmington City Code. The City has simply followed the process identified by the State and without having designated otherwise, has defaulted the authority to the City Council in all cases where a Subdivision Plat is amended. The proposed ordinance designates authority to City Staff, the Planning Commission, and City Council differently depending on what is being proposed.

If an applicant wanted to do a plat amendment, such as shifting a fence line 5 feet, currently they would have to come to the Council for approval. If the shift would not affect an easement, it would be easier for Staff to handle that boundary adjustment. Staff could likewise handle multiple lots being combined together. However, if a new lot was being created, or an easement, common area, or street was being altered, it should go to the Council. If a lot were being created that met the standards of the zone, the Planning Commission would consider it. Gibson said the proposed language creates a process that in theory will make it easier for people to make adjustments to their property. The Planning Commission recommended the text as proposed.

Mayor Anderson opened and closed the Public Hearing at 7:20 p.m. Nobody signed up in person or electronically to address the Council on the issue.

Isaacson shared some suggestions on the drafting of the actual ordinance. He said in the definition of a plat amendment in Section C, it doesn't read like the other sections do. Gibson said it would be wise to read it with the City Attorney. A subsection "i" is not needed if there are no other subsections. The overall substance of the ordinance is fine.

Councilmember Melissa Layton said it is good for Isaacson to be picky, as it makes the City look better. Gibson said Staff will make Isaacson's proposed changes.

Councilmember Alex Leeman said he really likes this ordinance. He once helped litigate a 12-inch boundary dispute, a plat amendment that took four months. An abbreviated way to handle a minor adjustment is good. Gibson said the intention was that it would likewise apply to a boundary adjustment between a platted subdivision and an adjacent lot in a non-platted subdivision. Isaacson said he wanted to see the draft again with corrections before voting on it. City Attorney Paul Roberts said a public hearing would not be needed again on this issue, unless substantive changes are made.

Motion:

Isaacson moved that the City Council table the proposed ordinance change, and direct Staff to come back with revised language consistent with the discussion tonight.

Layton seconded the motion. All Council members voted in favor, as there was no opposing vote.

BUSINESS

Consider a Resolution Supporting the Establishment of a Remote Transit Station

Assistant Community Development Director/City Planner Lyle Gibson presented this agenda item. To help facilitate the Farmington Station Area pPan and the type of development envisioned for the North Station project area, the City has applied to the Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity (GOEO) to establish a Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone (HTRZ). The purpose of the HTRZ is to collect more tax increment in phases over a longer period of time than was previously feasible with the existing Community Reinvestment Area (CRA) 1 and CRA 2 areas.

The City's application was presented and considered by the HTRZ Board on June 10, where the Board tabled a decision pending more information. Among the items requested was additional assurance that the transit system or fixed guideway extension would be implemented. The planned remote hub from the FrontRunner station north to the business park doesn't exist yet, which makes this HTRZ application unique. Staff's solution is to ask the RDA to put together a resolution in support of that concept. To this end, the proposed resolution has been created. If approved, it would be presented to the HTRZ Board July 9 to help address their concerns.

City Manager Brigham Mellor said another way to look at this is this is a piece of infrastructure required to bring about the office park. The City owns the one-mile Right of Way, which is part of a 12-mile stretch of asphalt. The hardest part is over, but there is still a hang-up because the Board hasn't approved an HTRZ like this before. If the RDA commits to this, it will happen.

Mayor Anderson said Farmington has earned a lot of goodwill lately, and it will help to continue to be proactive. This is a step to take showing Farmington is serious. Child said this is a vote of confidence in a project.

RDA member Scott Isaacson said he hopes the hub is moved a little further to the west; it is important to him. He envisions it as a hub and gathering place comparable to the fountain at Station Park. It could be a destination where people ride transit to come to Farmington just to sit and enjoy.

Mellor said that was brought up to both the HTRZ Committee and Beth Holbrook, a trustee of the Utah Transit Authority (UTA). At the end of the day, the decision about the exact location is between Farmington and UTA. It should go where it makes sense for both the provider of major transit and the City. The hub connects to the greenway, which is a major active transit corridor.

Motion:

Isaacson moved that the RDA approve the proposed resolution supporting the establishment of a remote transit station.

Findings 1-7:

1. The Farmington City Redevelopment Agency has authority to support infrastructure and amenities within project areas in order to enhance economic development; and
2. The Agency is aware of a pending application to convert two existing CRA areas into an HTRZ area; and
3. The Farmington City Council approved a Project Master Plan in 2020 which included plans for a Remote Transit Station at the village core of the North Farmington Station development; and
4. The Remote Transit Station is part of the certified Farmington Station Area Plan and has been included in the Wasatch Choice 2050 plan and the UTA Moves 2050 plan; and
5. The Remote Transit Station would serve as a means for transit users to directly access the proposed HTRZ area; and
6. The City of Farmington has already acquired much of the necessary property and permissions in order to establish the connection between the FrontRunner Station and the Remote Transit Station; and
7. The Agency is supportive of the concept of a Remote Transit Station, and is willing to develop that amenity as provided in this resolution.

BUSINESS:

Consideration of Additional Text and Amendments regarding Recreational Pools and Tennis Courts

Planning and GIS Specialist Shannon Hansell presented this agenda item. The proposed is a change to Farmington's current code for swimming pools and spas, which currently calls for a 6-foot fence with auto-locking and closing gates. Multiple property owners and contractors in Farmington have requested to be able to simply follow building code and not be required to fully fence in a swimming pool. The Planning Commission voted 4-2 to remove the 6-foot fence requirement from Farmington code completely. After the Council considered this on May 21, 2024, they wanted to go over and beyond the minimum requirements in the building code. Staff conducted research on the issue and how other Wasatch Front municipalities handle it. Salt Lake City and St. George did not have any requirements while others like Sandy and Brigham City did.

Staff proposes to add that a pool cannot be located within 20 feet from a side corner line, just like any other structure. The amendment presented includes a requirement for at least 4-foot tall fencing, walls, or other substantial barriers around pools. Substantial barriers are defined as any permanent barrier that would not allow passage by any person, except for gates. The amendment also maintains the self-closing and self-latching devices for gates. For applicable substantial barriers, fences, and walls, a sphere four inches in diameter may not pass through. Applicability for substantial barriers like retaining walls and hedges would be determined by the City Planner. Hot tubs, spas, and Jacuzzi covers would just need covers.

Leeman said he felt weird just leaving pools open. He proposed changing the proposed language in Paragraph 2 so it didn't look like the City would provide covers for hot tubs, spas, and Jacuzzis. Layton said she wants to keep little people safe from drowning. Child said the language gives Staff latitude for interpretation. Isaacson said pool covers lately are really good and strong. However, the ordinance doesn't enforce if the pool is covered when not occupied.

Motion:

Child moved that the City Council enact the ordinance to replace the requirement for a 6-foot fence or wall around a private recreational pool, with the language in the enabling ordinance (enclosed in the Staff Report), with the change to paragraph 2 to be changed from "provided" to "used."

GOVERNING BODY REPORTS:

City Manager Report

Mellor said there were three bid that came back on the new park, which is less than he expected. Many contractors and subcontractors said they were too busy. One bid was missing something, and one bid was way off, as much as $3 million more than expected. They just were not great bids, and Farmington didn't want to get into amending bids. The City is supposed to have three bids, so it was decided to go back out to bid in the fall. The three contractors understand. One is a small, local company who wants a fair shot at it. The team doing the roads agreed to take on some excavation work at the park site.

This could have an effect on the west side fire station. A few months ago, there was a feeling internally among the administration team that Farmington might be premature in pulling the trigger on construction of the fire station. There may not be the resources necessary to move forward for a few months. A lot depends on the revenue stream and the timing of going out to bid. If the bonds are backed with sales tax, the City may overextend itself. Ultimately, the City would want to pay the bonds with impact fees, but nobody is building yet.

Davis County is hoping to open the Western Sports Park (WSP) in February of 2025, but the beginning of June is more feasible. Instead of a traditional concession stand, the WSP is slated to have a full convenience store inside.

Hansell said FFKR Architects is working on Farmington's General Plan update. They are now at the public outreach portion, so they will have a booth at Festival Days. In the meantime, they have sent the City six topics to consider during public outreach. Hansell will send the Councilmembers a link with the six topics so they can do the survey themselves. Each will be ranked on a scale of 1 to 10. The topics include housing types, job opportunities, history, active transportation, protection of natural resources, and the enhancement of parks and trail opportunities.

Isaacson said the booth will be interactive, with participants given 10 markers to use on the six values. As everything can't be supported at the same level, they will have to prioritize.

Mayor Anderson and City Council Reports

Mellor said he will send Councilmembers all the information they need on Festival Days in an email tomorrow. New t-shirts will be provided, as the polo shirts can be heavy and hot.

Isaacson said the Bountiful Philharmonia—with over 75 accomplished musicians from South Davis County and surrounding area—recently performed in the park next to the Bountiful Recreation Center. It was nice and well attended. He recognized several of his neighbors were part of the community organization. He hopes Farmington will consider supporting fine arts and music such as this in the future, perhaps with an orchestra in the park feature for Festival Days. Mellor said they have a stage area for Festival Days, and another one is being designed in the new park.

Mellor told Councilmembers to disregard an email about a required performance review.

Child said a moment of pause for construction of the new park and fire station is healthy. With everyone hitting a recession, he does not predict sales tax will increase for a while. Farmington should not spend money it doesn't have. Leeman agreed, saying every time Farmington goes out to bid, the bids come in higher than expected. Mayor Anderson said the City hasn't received any proposals back yet for the highest and best use of Old Farm, so they could still proceed down that path.

Mellor said stop lights need to be installed on the road by the Harmons gas station, particularly the Innovator intersection. The road is still closed because the north portion is not yet paved. Four-way stops may be needed until the lights come in. Mayor Anderson said people are excited about the new road.

Michael Lambert, an unaffiliated candidate for the open Davis County Commission seat, introduced himself to the Council. He was one of 12 people who filed to fill Commissioner Randy Elliott's seat. Lambert is concerned with the divisiveness and polarization of politics on both the local and national level. He is a licensed social worker who lives in West Layton.
